

NEW APPROVED NERDC CURRICULUM

JSS 1 to 3

JSS 1 First Term Scheme of Work

(Weeks 1–10)

Week 1

English Studies: Introduction to comprehension; simple passages.

Mathematics: Number bases and place value.

Yoruba: Ẹ káàsán (Greetings and introductions).

Intermediate Science: Introduction to science and its importance.

PHE: Importance of physical fitness.

Digital Technology: Introduction to ICT.

CRS: Creation story.

Nigerian History: Introduction to history and sources.

Social & Citizenship Studies: What is society?

CCA: Introduction to cultural and creative arts.

Business Studies: Introduction to business studies.

French: Greetings and self-introduction.

Week 2

English Studies: Parts of speech (Nouns & Pronouns).

Mathematics: Multiples, factors, and prime numbers.

Yoruba: Yoruba alphabet and sounds.

Intermediate Science: Measurement of length, mass, and volume.

PHE: Types of exercises.

Digital Technology: Parts of a computer.

CRS: The fall of man.

Nigerian History: Early people in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Duties and responsibilities of citizens.

CCA: Elements of art.

Business Studies: The office and its functions.

French: Numbers 1–50.

Week 3

English Studies: Verbs and tenses; agreement of subject and verb.

Mathematics: Fractions and decimals.

Yoruba: Simple sentences in Yoruba.

Intermediate Science: Matter and its states.

PHE: Personal hygiene and sanitation.

Digital Technology: Functions of computer parts.

CRS: Cain and Abel.

Nigerian History: Nok culture.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Values and morals.

CCA: Drawing and shading.

Business Studies: Occupations in society.

French: Days of the week.

Week 4

English Studies: Adjectives and adverbs.

Mathematics: Percentages and ratios.

Yoruba: Days of the week and months of the year.

Intermediate Science: Living and non-living things.

PHE: Food and nutrition.

Digital Technology: Input and output devices.

CRS: Noah and the flood.

Nigerian History: Ancient kingdoms (Benin, Oyo).

Social & Citizenship Studies: Respect for authority.

CCA: Traditional music in Nigeria.

Business Studies: Trade and commerce.

French: Months of the year.

Week 5

English Studies: Comprehension and vocabulary development.

Mathematics: Simple equations.

Yoruba: Numbers (1–1000).

Intermediate Science: The human body: organs and systems.

PHE: Posture and movement.

Digital Technology: Basic typing skills.

CRS: Abraham's call and covenant.

Nigerian History: Hausa-Fulani city states.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Rule of law.

CCA: Introduction to drama.

Business Studies: Forms of business ownership.

French: Classroom objects.

Week 6

English Studies: Letter writing (informal letters).

Mathematics: Geometry: lines and angles.

Yoruba: Simple conversation/dialogue.

Intermediate Science: Energy: forms and uses.

PHE: Games and athletics.

Digital Technology: Storage devices.

CRS: Joseph's dreams and journey.

Nigerian History: Igbo societies.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Leadership in society.

CCA: Nigerian dance styles.

Business Studies: Communication in business.

French: Family members.

Week 7

English Studies: Reading and summary writing.

Mathematics: Perimeter and area of plane shapes.

Yoruba: Proverbs and their meanings.

Intermediate Science: Force and motion.

PHE: Safety rules in sports.

Digital Technology: Simple uses of the internet.

CRS: Moses and the Israelites.

Nigerian History: Colonial rule in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Gender roles and equality.

CCA: Craftwork with local materials.

Business Studies: Introduction to bookkeeping.

French: Simple conversation/dialogue.

Week 8

English Studies: Idioms and figurative expressions.

Mathematics: Data collection and representation.

Yoruba: Simple Yoruba poems.

Intermediate Science: Soil and its types.

PHE: First aid and simple treatments.

Digital Technology: Introduction to MS Word.

CRS: The Ten Commandments.

Nigerian History: Nationalist movements.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Peace and conflict resolution.

CCA: Textile and design.

Business Studies: Importance of savings.

French: Colors.

Week 9

English Studies: Composition writing (descriptive essay).

Mathematics: Word problems and applications.

Yoruba: Vocabulary development.

Intermediate Science: Simple machines.

PHE: Common communicable diseases.

Digital Technology: Creating and saving documents.

CRS: God's love and protection.

Nigerian History: Independence struggle.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Tolerance and unity.

CCA: Role of arts in society.

Business Studies: Consumer education.

French: Asking and answering questions.

Week 10

English Studies: Revision and tests.

Mathematics: Revision and tests.

Yoruba: Revision and tests.

Intermediate Science: Revision and tests.

PHE: Revision and tests.

Digital Technology: Revision and tests.

CRS: Revision and tests.

Nigerian History: Revision and tests.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Revision and tests.

CCA: Revision and tests.

Business Studies: Revision and tests.

French: Revision and tests.

JSS 2 First Term Scheme of Work

(Weeks 1–10)

Week 1

English Studies: Comprehension – Reading for main ideas.

Mathematics: Revision of JSS 1 topics; whole numbers and place value.

Yoruba: Greetings and extended dialogues.

Intermediate Science: Living and non-living things review; classification of living things.

PHE: Components of physical fitness.

Digital Technology: Revision of computer parts; introduction to spreadsheets.

CRS: The call of Abraham.

Nigerian History: Early Nigerian societies (review).

Social & Citizenship Studies: Introduction to citizenship education.

CCA: Elements of design.

Business Studies: Introduction to commerce; production.

French: Revision of greetings and self-introduction.

Week 2

English Studies: Parts of speech – Nouns, pronouns, verbs.

Mathematics: Factors, multiples, prime numbers.

Yoruba: Yoruba alphabet and oral drills.

Intermediate Science: Cell as the basic unit of life.

PHE: Physical fitness test.

Digital Technology: Introduction to Excel worksheet.

CRS: Abraham's covenant with God.

Nigerian History: Migration and settlement patterns in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Qualities of a good citizen.

CCA: Principles of drawing.

Business Studies: Divisions of commerce – Trade and aids to trade.

French: Numbers 1–100; classroom instructions.

Week 3

English Studies: Verb tenses and concord.

Mathematics: Fractions – addition and subtraction.

Yoruba: Sentence construction.

Intermediate Science: Human body systems – respiratory and digestive.

PHE: Posture and movement.

Digital Technology: Entering and editing data in spreadsheet.

CRS: Abraham and Lot.

Nigerian History: The Trans-Saharan trade.

Social & Citizenship Studies: National values – honesty, discipline.

CCA: Drawing objects.

Business Studies: Forms of trade – Home and foreign trade.

French: Days of the week and months of the year.

Week 4

English Studies: Adjectives and adverbs.

Mathematics: Fractions – multiplication and division.

Yoruba: Yoruba proverbs and idioms.

Intermediate Science: Circulatory system.

PHE: Food and nutrition.

Digital Technology: Using formulas in Excel.

CRS: Isaac and Jacob.

Nigerian History: The Trans-Atlantic slave trade.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Democracy and rule of law.

CCA: Traditional Nigerian music.

Business Studies: Aids to trade – Banking.

French: Family members.

Week 5

English Studies: Comprehension and vocabulary building.

Mathematics: Percentages and ratios.

Yoruba: Days, months, and calendar expressions.

Intermediate Science: Reproduction in plants.

PHE: Ball games – football, basketball.

Digital Technology: Creating simple charts in Excel.

CRS: Jacob and Esau.

Nigerian History: British penetration into Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Duties and responsibilities of citizens.

CCA: Drama and improvisation.

Business Studies: Aids to trade – Insurance.

French: Colors and objects.

Week 6

English Studies: Letter writing – Formal letters.

Mathematics: Simple equations.

Yoruba: Yoruba oral literature (Àlò, Àrò).

Intermediate Science: Photosynthesis.

PHE: Track events – sprints, relays.

Digital Technology: Saving and retrieving spreadsheet files.

CRS: Joseph in Egypt.

Nigerian History: Colonial administration in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Leadership qualities.

CCA: Nigerian dance forms.

Business Studies: Aids to trade – Transportation.

French: Food items and meals.

Week 7

English Studies: Summary writing.

Mathematics: Geometry – Angles and triangles.

Yoruba: Yoruba poems and songs.

Intermediate Science: Heat energy and temperature.

PHE: Safety education in sports.

Digital Technology: Formatting cells in Excel.

CRS: The Ten Commandments.

Nigerian History: Resistance to colonial rule.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Peace and conflict resolution.

CCA: Craftwork with local materials.

Business Studies: Aids to trade – Communication.

French: Asking simple questions.

Week 8

English Studies: Idioms and figures of speech.

Mathematics: Perimeter and area of plane shapes.

Yoruba: Vocabulary development.

Intermediate Science: Sound energy.

PHE: First aid and treatment of wounds.

Digital Technology: Introduction to PowerPoint.

CRS: The journey of the Israelites.

Nigerian History: Nationalist movements in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Importance of tolerance.

CCA: Textile design (tie & dye).

Business Studies: Aids to trade – Advertising.

French: Describing objects with adjectives.

Week 9

English Studies: Composition – Narrative essay.

Mathematics: Volume of cubes and cuboids.

Yoruba: Proverbs and wise sayings.

Intermediate Science: Soil and agriculture.

PHE: Communicable diseases.

Digital Technology: Creating slides in PowerPoint.

CRS: The judges of Israel.

Nigerian History: Nigerian independence struggle.

Social & Citizenship Studies: National unity.

CCA: Role of arts in national development.

Business Studies: Importance of consumer education.

French: Describing family members.

Week 10

English Studies: Revision and tests.

Mathematics: Revision and tests.

Yoruba: Revision and tests.

Intermediate Science: Revision and tests.

PHE: Revision and tests.

Digital Technology: Revision and tests.

CRS: Revision and tests.

Nigerian History: Revision and tests.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Revision and tests.

CCA: Revision and tests.

Business Studies: Revision and tests.

French: Revision and tests.

JSS 3 First Term Scheme of Work

(Weeks 1–10)

Week 1

English Studies: Revision of JSS 2 work; comprehension – reading for details.

Mathematics: Revision of JSS 2 topics; whole numbers and BODMAS.

Yoruba: Simple conversation and oral drills.

Intermediate Science: Revision; classification of matter.

PHE: Introduction to physical fitness.

Digital Technology: Internet and its uses.

CRS: The birth of John the Baptist and Jesus.

Nigerian History: Review of colonial Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Introduction to social values.

CCA: Principles of art and design.

Business Studies: Meaning and scope of business.

French: Greetings and introduction revision.

Week 2

English Studies: Parts of speech – review and application.

Mathematics: Indices and standard form.

Yoruba: Yoruba orthography (accents and tones).

Intermediate Science: Mixtures and separation techniques.

PHE: Components of physical fitness.

Digital Technology: Search engines and browsing skills.

CRS: Early life and ministry of Jesus.

Nigerian History: Indirect rule in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Importance of honesty and discipline.

CCA: Drawing natural objects.

Business Studies: Occupation – types of occupations.

French: Numbers and classroom objects.

Week 3

English Studies: Verb tenses and concord.

Mathematics: Logarithms.

Yoruba: Yoruba proverbs.

Intermediate Science: Elements, compounds, and mixtures.

PHE: Nutrition and diet.

Digital Technology: Uses of email.

CRS: The baptism and temptation of Jesus.

Nigerian History: Nationalist movements in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Respect for elders and authorities.

CCA: Painting techniques.

Business Studies: Business transactions and documents.

French: Days of the week, months of the year.

Week 4

English Studies: Adjectives and adverbs.

Mathematics: Simple quadratic equations.

Yoruba: Yoruba oral literature (Ewi, Ijala).

Intermediate Science: Atoms and molecules.

PHE: Track and field events.

Digital Technology: Introduction to presentation software.

CRS: Jesus' first miracle and early teachings.

Nigerian History: Formation of political parties in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Tolerance in society.

CCA: Nigerian traditional music.

Business Studies: Bookkeeping – cashbook.

French: Family members and relationships.

Week 5

English Studies: Comprehension and vocabulary development.

Mathematics: Simultaneous equations.

Yoruba: Reading and interpretation of Yoruba texts.

Intermediate Science: Chemical symbols and equations.

PHE: Games – football and volleyball.

Digital Technology: Creating PowerPoint slides.

CRS: The Sermon on the Mount.

Nigerian History: Nigerian independence struggle.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Good governance and democracy.

CCA: Drama and improvisation.

Business Studies: Bookkeeping – Petty cash book.

French: Colors and describing objects.

Week 6

English Studies: Letter writing – formal and informal letters.

Mathematics: Algebraic expressions and factorization.

Yoruba: Idioms and wise sayings.

Intermediate Science: Acids, bases, and salts.

PHE: Safety rules in sports.

Digital Technology: Formatting slides in PowerPoint.

CRS: The parables of Jesus.

Nigerian History: Military rule in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Corruption and its effects.

CCA: Nigerian dance and cultural displays.

Business Studies: Double entry bookkeeping.

French: Food items and meals.

Week 7

English Studies: Summary writing techniques.

Mathematics: Mensuration – perimeter and area of plane shapes.

Yoruba: Yoruba riddles and folktales.

Intermediate Science: Heat transfer – conduction, convection, radiation.

PHE: Communicable diseases.

Digital Technology: Inserting pictures, audio, and video in slides.

CRS: The miracles of Jesus.

Nigerian History: Civil war in Nigeria.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Conflict and conflict resolution.

CCA: Craftwork – weaving, tie and dye.

Business Studies: Ledgers and trial balance.

French: Asking and answering questions.

Week 8

English Studies: Figures of speech.

Mathematics: Trigonometry – introduction.

Yoruba: Yoruba drama and plays.

Intermediate Science: Light – reflection and refraction.

PHE: First aid and treatment of injuries.

Digital Technology: Slide transitions and animations.

CRS: The crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

Nigerian History: Return to civilian rule.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Human rights and responsibilities.

CCA: Importance of arts to society.

Business Studies: Introduction to entrepreneurship.

French: Describing people and objects.

Week 9

English Studies: Composition – Argumentative essay.

Mathematics: Statistics – collection and representation of data.

Yoruba: Yoruba poetry.

Intermediate Science: Electricity – conductors and insulators.

PHE: Ball games – basketball, handball.

Digital Technology: Printing and saving presentations.

CRS: Ascension and Great Commission.

Nigerian History: Nigeria as a member of international organizations.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Importance of patriotism.

CCA: Appreciation of Nigerian arts.

Business Studies: Consumer rights and protection.

French: Shopping and market items.

Week 10

English Studies: Revision and tests.

Mathematics: Revision and tests.

Yoruba: Revision and tests.

Intermediate Science: Revision and tests.

PHE: Revision and tests.

Digital Technology: Revision and tests.

CRS: Revision and tests.

Nigerian History: Revision and tests.

Social & Citizenship Studies: Revision and tests.

CCA: Revision and tests.

Business Studies: Revision and tests.

French: Revision and tests.